The diagrams illustrate changes in climate variables over different time periods. The top row shows changes in surface radiation (SW and LW) and aerosol forcing, while the bottom row displays changes in cloud cover, temperature, and wind speed. The plots are labeled (a) through (f) for reference.