Concentration (ng m$^{-3}$) vs. Max wind speed (km h$^{-1}$)

- Concentration (ng m$^{-3}$) on the y-axis.
- Max wind speed (km h$^{-1}$) on the x-axis.

The graph shows a scatter plot with error bars indicating variability in concentration values at different max wind speeds. The data points are marked with different symbols, and the error bars represent the standard deviation or confidence intervals.